MEMORANDUM FOR: Assistant Director for Collection and Dissemination.

SUBJECT: Liaison with the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

1. It is desired that your office be aware of the entire scope of liaison functions provided by Mr. C. D. DeLoach of the Federal Bureau of Investigation in the contacts of the Bureau with this Agency. They may be divided generally into five categories, as follows:

a. Direct liaison between the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the Director of Central Intelligence.

b. Liaison between the operational activities of the Bureau and special covert activities of the Office of Special Operations.

d. Liaison between the Bureau and the Executive for Inspection and Security in connection with personnel and security investigations.

e. Liaison between the Bureau and this Agency on the flow of intelligence information not primarily connected with the activities noted in a, b, c, and d, above—as conducted through the Office of Collection and Dissemination.

2. It is apparent that, at times, these various activities may overlap to some degree. However, in the interests of security, it is desirable that there be complete freedom for Mr. DeLoach in the exercise of his multiple functions in connection with this Agency.
